Kind attention of

Fr. Georges de Laire,

Pastor of St. Pius X Parish

575 Candia Rd, Manchester , NH 03109

USA

Dear Padre,

The reports which now circulate on the Net about you and your "work" (i.e. imposing unwarranted "precepts" upon the members of the Saint Benedict Center) are indeed disturbing and wholly wrong!

Shameful! Reprehensible! Please comment particularly on this piece which - rightfully or wrongly?- has you as the prime actor:

...Church Militant has learned that in recent years, at least three complaints against de Laire have been filed with the Holy See and made known to Libasci. Taken together they allege corruption, abuse of office, grave violations of the law, and incompetence as a canonist, even warning Vatican officials that in no case should de Laire be named bishop. And these matters were entirely unrelated to the Saint Benedict Center ...

There is more on the website quoted below. It is a dreadful disgrace!

Please let me know how things really are and if these reports are true. If yes, you must resign and do not show yourself anymore to anybody. Apologize and disappear. And seriously repent!

If not, then I apologize for suspecting you of these things and writing to you (and letting others know) at all.

Yours,

Paul Faigl

I beg you to reconsider your judgment on the religious you have condemned.

Subject: May I ask a question of faith?

In Scripture, Jesus said that he was the way, the truth, and the life.

Is this now no longer the case with Roman Catholics? As a fourth degree Knight of Columbus, I am supposed to be in solidarity with you as a priest. I am also supposed to be a faithful Roman Catholic; willing to ask the question if there is a clarification of faith required.

When I was confirmed, I chose the confirmation name Quadratus of Athens, who wrote the first great Apology for the church. I had reason for that chosen name.

I bring this to your attention, as someone who genuinely wants to assure that my faith is authentic and correct, according to the Catechism and Magisterium of the Church.

Sister Walburga, the principal of our school told us repeatedly that outside the faith there was no salvation.

I will turn 52 this February 1st. As a child attending Saint Bernadette's in Silver Spring Maryland, I was taught the following phrase in Latin:

Extra Ecclesiam Nulla Salus

Is this now abrogated?

Vivat Jesu!

Church dogma

To the Editor: The New Hampshire Catholic Diocese sanction of the Richmond Slaves of the Immaculate Heart of Mary requires them to submit to binding Church interpretation as regard to the principle "Outside Church No Salvation."

The dogma (not principle) "Outside Church No Salvation" was defined to clarify and affirm the Faith by Pope Innocent III, Fourth Lateran Council, and is binding as stated.

"The meaning of the sacred dogmas is ever to be maintained which has once been declared by Holy Mother Church, and there must never be any abandonment of this sense under the pretext or in the name of a more profound understanding." So said Pope Pius IX at the First Vatican Council.

Subject: Dogma Unacceptable

Dogma 1: Outside the Catholic Church there is no salvation. Attached

Dogma 2: The meaning of the sacred dogmas is perpetually to be retained which has once been declared by Holy Mother Church. Nor is that meaning ever to be departed from and there must never be any abandonment of this sense under the pretext or in the name of a more profound understanding. Attached Dogma Deserted: Saint Benedict Center Richmond NH Brother Andre Marie affirmed the principle "Outside Church No Salvation" must be interpreted according to the official doctrine of the Church. All Salvation comes from Christ through the Church, which is the Body of Christ, the Sacrament of Salvation (cf. CCC 846). Thus, the meaning of a sacred dogma is not retained. Attached 1 and 2.

CCC 846: Outside the Church there is no salvation. How are we to understand this affirmation, often repeated by the Church Fathers?

Re-formulated positively, it means that all salvation comes from Christ the Head through the Church which is his Body: Comment: This "affirmation" is from the Fourth Lateran Council decree, which must be understood and believed as stated. "Re-formulated positively" and heretically, changes the dogma's meaning from "outside the Church" to "inside the Church".

Summary: Rome declares Lateran Council IV dogma unacceptable. So does New Hampshire's Saint Benedict Center. Br. Andre Marie's affirmation is a complete sell out of the Crusade of St. Benedict Center and Father Feeney's defense of Pope Innocent III Fourth Lateran Council dogma "Outside Church No Salvation".

The Shield of the Trinity - poem

We profess and confess as 1 is the Blessed and
most Holy Trinity 3 yet one
as st Patrick through the Shamrock
us revealed
the roman catholic 1 true faith
undefiled
is for our eternal salvation
mandatory
never confusing or confounding
the persons, nor dividing in character
essence
word will way and belief
As they are united Universally
timelessly
verily

All 1 in Majesty
co eternally
ut sint unum
is the holy desire and dream
of the indivisible
Holy Trinity

The Word became flesh
he took on human form
in body
real man and true God
indubiously
For RIGHT faith
we must confess profess and believe the essence of love and truth
he sacrificed and suffered torturously
to offer us
the free choice and
narrow path
to paradise and eternity

He descended into Hell
on the 3rd day rose miraculously
he ascended into heaven
where he sits on the right hand of God the Father Almighty,
and the Holy Spirit
the promised Paraclete
from whence he will come to judge the living and the dead
At whose coming all men will rise again
with their bodies;
And shall give account for their own works.
they who have done good works of Mercy 14 of which there are in fullness and totality
shall go into life
everlasting;
and they that have done evil,
into everlasting
fire.

This is the catholic faith;

which except a man believe
truly and firmly,
he cannot be saved
Do you with this agree or disagree?
for in truth love mercy and
all honesty
ONLY non serviam
the Shield of the Trinity challenges
contests and disagrees

Fr. Georges de Laire,
You had better go back to seminary, one that isn't spewing heresy that there is some how a liberal way to understand, there is "no salvation outside the Church". Your a heretic and should be relieved of your office as canon lawyer. There maybe exceptions, but that is for God to determine, the Church has always taught (despite wolves in shepherds clothing) that to be sure of salvation you must be inside the Church, receiving the Sacraments. The Sacraments are the specific means to get to Heaven. Your treatment of the Slaves of the Immaculate is transparent, your a protestant in a Catholic collar. Repent and publicly correct your heresy to save your soul.

Dear Bishop, I am saddened to learn that the Fr. de Laire is responsible for the plight of the St Benedict Center. Did he convince you that Dogma is heresy? de Laire has complaints of corruption, abuse of office, grave violations of law and incompetence as a canonists filed against him: from which I understand that you are aware? Please correct me if I am wrong. In addition, he resides most often at a 1.5 million dollar estate he purchased. So faithful Catholics who profess the TRUE Faith, live the true Faith are censured and punished and called not Catholic, while this man resides in a 1.5 mil estate, and ruins their very Catholic faithful center. Reminds me of Nancy Pelosi receiving communion. There will be pebbles in my contribution to any Diocese collection Bishop, that or Alynski dollars. Will also do all I can to convince others to not donate to anything other than restricted use at their own Parish. Follow the Truth, Bishop. I will pray every day for you. God Bless

The news is out about Fr. George de Laire, we demand his immediate firing and the Bishop needs to publicly apologize to the Saint Benedict Center. The news media will not let you get away with this, no money to the Diocese until you fire Laire and publicly apologize.
